1. Be the boss of your body. That body is yours, and yours alone. You decide when you want to share it with someone. Remember, even if you say "yes" and let somebody touch you, kiss you, or hug you and then change your mind and want their hands off you, that is okay — that still means no. Dress the way you want and remember it's not an invitation for anyone.

7 Ways I'm Teaching My Daughter The Art Of Being A Girl Boss

Similarly, if your boss drives a piece of junk car, you'd be stupid to try and convince him that it's the prettiest one you've ever seen. Compliment him on his frugality or disregard for what other people think, but don't lie to him. He's smarter than that. The problem with overdoing it is that it insults people's intelligence.
