Alyssa Turner's books are ones you can't put down from the moment you start the first page. With that said Unleashed was one of those great books I couldn't put down myself. The BDSM scenes captivating but for me Umatched book 2 was more about Sam finding herself within her life and love. Also where she belonged within the brothers "club".

Having just finished reading the author's book "Polished", which was very well done, I was quite surprised by how little I enjoyed this book. The world building takes front stage to the detriment of the character development, romance, and plot which resulted in a story that had potential but frankly seemed more like an early draft rather than a polished product.
