Smash Into You Shelly Crane

I am a super huge fan of Shelly Crane (especially her Significance Series), so when I got the chance to review an ARC of Smash Into You, I jumped on it! This book is definitely a lot different than Crane's other books; it is told exclusively from the male character, Jude's POV.

Smash Into You by Shelly Crane - Goodreads

Ms. Crane creates a believable story that had me thinking Jude and Marley could walk through the door at any moment. There was a perfect amount of drama, anxiety, frustration, sexual tension, and most of all, hope. I loved Smash Into You and I would highly recommend it to anyone and I look forward to working my way through other novels by Ms. Crane.

Smash Into You - Shelly Crane

"I found the only place I ever wanted to live again in this girl, right her in my arms. I leaned back just barely, ran my thumb from her brow o the tip of her nose and stopped at her lips, loving the way her eyes fluttered. "I'll always come to you." — Shelly Crane, Smash Into You

Shelly Crane Speaks - NYT & USA Today Bestselling Author

Anything Shelly Crane writes is worth reading! This book had it all. I did not see the twists coming that were in Marley and Jude's life. Jude and Marley's relationship was really sweet and Jude's character really matured once he met Marley. This is a clean read, with nothing too graphic. May be a little more suited for the older teen and up.
